

Len Crouse to Attend South Carolina Captive Conference

(September 13, 2012)— In the past decade, South Carolina has become one of the preferred captive domiciles in the United States. In conjunction with the growth of captives forming in the domicile, the South Carolina Captive Insurance Association has grown, too.

This year, the SCCIA will hold its 13th Annual Executive Educational Conference, Sept. 17-19 at the Charleston Place Hotel. Len Crouse, Partner and former captive regulator for Vermont, will represent JLT Towner at the event.

“This captive conference has become an event captive managers and owners have to attend,” said Crouse, a member of the Government Affairs Committee of the National Risk Retention Association. “In a short period of time, South Carolina has become one of the largest and most respected domiciles in the United States.”
